

Nawar Alsaadi joins Position Green's Advisory Board

May 24, 2024

Position Green, the Nordic leader in ESG software and advisory services, announces the appointment of Nawar Alsaadi as a new member to its advisory board.

"We are very pleased to welcome Nawar Alsaadi to our advisory board," said Joachim Nahem, Executive Chairman and Co-founder, Position Green. "His expertise in sustainable investments will be invaluable as we continue on our mission to revolutionize how businesses integrate sustainability."

Mr Alsaadi has held several senior ESG-related roles during his career: Chief Impact Officer at ScopeFour Capital, Senior Portfolio Manager ESG Investing at Canada Post Pension Plan, and Director of ESG Insights at ethical investment firm, NEI investments, among other executive and advisory roles. With over fifteen years of experience in the area of sustainable investments, Mr Alsaadi will play a central role in guiding Position Green towards impactful initiatives and strategic growth outside the Nordics.

"I am privileged to become part of Position Green's distinguished advisory board. As sustainability reshapes the business landscape of the 21st century, the ability of companies and investors to adeptly manage and utilize sustainability data will set them apart. Position Green's combined offering of cutting-edge ESG software and expert sustainability advice uniquely qualifies it as the indispensable partner in this global business transformation" says Nawar Alsaadi.

As a member of the advisory board, Mr Alsaadi will collaborate with Position Green's leadership team to provide strategic guidance, foster partnerships, and drive impactful initiatives that address pressing corporate sustainability challenges.
