

Position Green appoints industry expert to lead U.S. operations

3 June 2024

Amanda Bangs, who has a background at the intersection of ESG, regulation, and strategy, will lead the firm's office in the United States at a critical juncture in its sustainability reporting journey.

Amanda Bangs, Managing Director US

Position Green, the Nordic region's leading independent pure-play sustainability partner, has appointed Amanda Bangs as Managing Director of the United States expanding the company's reach into the Americas and positioning itself at the forefront of the North America sustainability reporting ecosystem.

In her role, Amanda will oversee the company's strategic initiatives across the United States, building partnerships, expanding market presence, and helping organizations achieve their sustainability ambitions.

Amanda brings a wealth of experience in corporate sustainability, strategic management, and organizational leadership, making her the ideal choice to steer Position Green's continued growth and innovation in the American market. Prior to joining Position Green, Amanda led partnerships for a private markets-focused ESG reporting platform, supported McDonald's carbon reduction goals as an EDF Climate Corps Fellow, and led management consulting engagements at Deloitte.

Amanda is renowned for her strategic vision and her ability to translate sustainability goals into tangible outcomes. Her appointment marks an exciting new chapter for Position Green as the company continues to empower organizations globally to integrate sustainable practices at the core of their business operations to create value.

Position Green's bespoke Sustainability Management Suite, used by over 700 businesses worldwide, allows sustainability leaders and executives to leverage the cloud-based software to comply with regulations and unlock impact opportunities across the full ESG spectrum, including developing a strong sustainability narrative to attract business, talent and investment.

Daniel Gadd, Co-Founder and CEO of Position Green, stated: "We are thrilled to have Amanda Bangs leading our U.S. operations. Her impressive background in corporate sustainability and her unwavering commitment to positive impact align perfectly with our company's mission. Amanda's leadership will undoubtedly accelerate our efforts to help businesses achieve their sustainability goals, further solidifying Position Green's presence in the U.S. market."

Amanda Bangs, Managing Director, United States, added: "I'm honored to join Position Green and lead our talented U.S. team at this pivotal moment. Our goal is to provide businesses with the tools and strategies necessary to achieve their sustainability ambitions while creating positive change in their industries."

About Position Green

Position Green is the largest independent sustainability company in the Nordic region, and a pioneer in ESG transformation. As a pure-play sustainability partner supporting organizations to accelerate their sustainability journey, it provides proprietary ESG reporting software solutions, advisory services, assurance, and a learning and academy offering. By making sustainability measurable and actionable, companies can transform and streamline their ESG data management and reporting processes and embed sustainability strategies that reduce risk and create value.

Position Green has over 700 clients worldwide, including more than 50 GP/LPs, and more than 330 employees across the United States, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, the UK, and Belgium.

For inquiries and further information, please contact:

Sandro Pardo
Marketing Director US
sandro.pardo@positiongreen.com