

Position Green recognized as a Representative Vendor shortlisted in the 2024 Gartner® Market Guide for ESG Reporting and Management Software

October 2, 2024

Position Green, a leading ESG Software, is proud to announce its inclusion in the Gartner 2024 Market Guide for ESG Reporting and Management Software.<sup>1</sup> We believe that this recognition underscores Position Green's commitment to delivering relevant and innovative solutions that support organizations in achieving their sustainability goals, helping them transition through compliance to impact.

According to the Gartner report, "CIOs are increasingly tasked with developing solutions to manage and report enterprise environmental, social and governance performance. This Market Guide defines and analyzes the ESG reporting and management software market and profiles representative vendors."

"We are proud to be listed in Gartner's Market Guide for ESG Reporting and Management Software," says Jonas Bohlin, CPO of Position Green. "Our software is designed to not only meet the current compliance demands of businesses but also to anticipate and adapt to evolving corporate sustainability needs. We believe that this recognition affirms our dedication to supporting organizations as they navigate the complex sustainability landscape by making sustainability data driven and actionable."
